Expected Family Contribution: [REDACTED]

Based on the information we have on record for you, your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is [REDACTED]. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study funds, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of six school years. Once a total amount of Federal Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Federal Pell Grant aid.

Based on your EFC of [REDACTED], you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to [REDACTED] for the 2023–24 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

FAFSA Data

Your FAFSA data reflects the answers you provided on your FAFSA form. Assumed values are marked with an asterisk (*).
